

CHARGE SHE SOLD GIRL, 14, AS BRIDE FOR CHINAMAN

Alleged Price Paid Was $700—Stepmother Faces Abduction Accusation.

Mrs. Mary Bainta, in charge of the mission of the Church of All Nations, at No. 291 Bowery, has gone to Binghamton to investigate the case of Anna Chin Wore, a fourteen-year-old girl who has been at the mission for the past month and whose stepmother, Mrs. Anna Chin Wore, a woman of English birth is under arrest on a charge of abduction.

Representatives of the Children's Society of Binghamton and of the Travelers' Aid Society of New York have been working on the case for two months.

The specific charge against the stepmother is that she forced the fourteen-year-old child to marry David Lee Mong, proprietor of a chop-suey restaurant in Binghamton, by whom the child's stepmother was employed. It is charged that after a Judge in Binghamton had refused to perform the ceremony, Mrs. Wore induced a Baptist minister to marry them by declaring the girl was sixteen years old and falsely stating that a marriage was desired because of an expected child.

The Binghamton authorities charge that David Lee Mong paid Mrs. Wore $700 to force the marriage, which it is alleged was performed last November. The child ran away in December and was cared for by the Travelers' Aid Society in New York.
